

County Council Election Thursday 4th June

Re-elect County Councillor

Colin Taylor

Livingstone Park resident Cllr David Buxton says “Colin Taylor is an honest and hard-working community campaigner who will continue to fight for a community centre at Horton Chapel and the speedy adoption of our roads and street lights by the county council”.

Why you should vote for Colin Taylor

- An experienced councillor who knows how to get things done.
- Worked with the “RA Rebels” to ensure local people were consulted on the future of Horton Chapel. (The RA leadership and Labour wanted to sell it to the highest bidder.)
- Wanted the Horton Water Tower demolished before the new houses were built. (The RA councillors voted to keep it for new flats.)
- Now pressing for more space around the expanded Southfield Park School.
- Pressing for prompt adoption of the hospital cluster roads and sewers.
- For 7 years Colin has served on the Health Scrutiny committee, which has made sure that Epsom General Hospital retains its A&E and maternity services.
- At County Hall the Lib Dems always vote to spend money on road repairs rather than publicity, on road safety rather than consultants, and on centres for young people rather than policy initiatives.

Colin has been a Governor of Southfield Park since it started

Now – It's in The Times!

You may have seen it first in the Epsom Guardian, but last week it also appeared in The Times. One-star Surrey County Council – the only county in this bottom class.

Surrey County Council, which has a massive Tory majority, has been in huge trouble in the past 12 months over a bad Ofsted report on children's services and falling to the bottom of the Audit Commission's town hall league tables this year.

Time for a Change?

In Surrey the Conservatives are not the answer - they are the problem. Only the Lib Dems have a comprehensive plan for Surrey – the Six to Fix.
